OVER BY TRUCK,
ONE ARM BROKENMotor, Traveling at Low Speed,
Is Stopped Before Rear
Wheel Touches Body; Sprang in Front of Machine.

On her way home from the V. M. C. A., where her father was working, the 16-year-old daughter of John Henning, 1204 North Third street, was run over by a motor truck shortly after noon yesterday. The girl had just taken her father's dinner.

The accident occurred on West Third avenue near Second street. According to witnesses, the driver of the truck, Augustus Alvy, Jr., of Cedar, was not blameable. They said the girl was playing with another child and standing in front of the automobile. Alvy said the machine was going at seven or eight miles an hour. He stopped it before the back wheel touched the child.

The child was picked up by bystanders. She was crying from pain. Dr. Chief Klein hurried her to St. Joseph's hospital in his car without much regard for the speed limit. There it was found that her left arm was broken and that the leg on the same side was sprained. The physician said that a woman evidently had passed over the arm and leg.

A number of cases have been reported of Knights of Pythias who were in the city temporarily who were in need; and it is the purpose of the relief committee to take all such cases in charge and see that assistance is given in a manner that will be systematic and thorough.

Attorneys to Carry Case to National Committee to Learn Whether Crime Charged Is Common Law Offense.

A JURY in the district court early last night found Ignacio Hernandez, of Albuquerque guilty of adultery. Judge Reynolds at once sentenced him to imprisonment for a year but immediately afterward suspended the sentence. The woman, who was accused jointly with Hernandez, pleaded guilty a short time ago.

At the opening of the case, yesterday afternoon, W. A. Keheler and P. C. Rooley, attorneys for Hernandez, moved to quash the indictment, alleging that the crime, with which the man was charged, was not a common law offense or a statutory crime in New Mexico. The court overruled the motion. A motion for a directed verdict on these grounds was made at the close of the trial of testimony, which it was understood, was admitted in evidence. Hernandez was permitted to testify in regard to it. He stated he knew it was only a defense.

Frank Anderson Acquitted.
Frank Anderson, restaurant keeper, who was placed on trial Wednesday, charged with cruelty and assault upon his wife, was found not guilty yesterday afternoon. Anderson's two sons, 12 and 12 years old, were on the stand Wednesday afternoon and gave testimony highly favorable to their mother.

The case against Jose Romero was dismissed yesterday morning by the court. The man was charged with assault upon his wife. When the case was called the state attorney was not ready to go on with the trial on account of the absence of an important witness, W. A. Keheler and P. C. Rooley, attorneys for Romero, then asked that the case be dismissed, citing the fact that he had been in jail six months.

Judge W. C. Hosmer filed a divorce complaint for Mrs. Dennis E. Green, who charges her husband with abandonment and non-support. She asks for alimony and suit money "in such sum as the court may direct." They were married December 25, 1912, and, according to Mrs. Green, her husband left her December 9, 1914.

The child was picked up by bystanders. She was crying from pain. Dr. Chief Klein hurried her to St. Joseph's hospital in his car without much regard for the speed limit. There it was found that her left arm was broken and that the leg on the same side was sprained. The physician said that a woman evidently had passed over the arm and leg.

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE:
Lynn, Mass., Oct. 21.—J. Chesney Bodding of Melrose, and Philip Gilman, of Melton, were killed today by the fall of a biplane in which they were making an experimental flight. Bodding, who was manager of the Santos aviation school, was the operator of the machine and Gilman was his mechanician. They had been flying over the marshes when the wing framework appeared to collapse and the machine dropped.

Both men were buried to a depth of two feet in the soft mud of the marsh and were dead when taken out.

BRITISH LABOR TROUBLES
MUCH EXAGGERATED

BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEADERS WIRE:
London, Oct. 21.—Labor troubles in England have been much exaggerated by the press and by others whose motives are economic and not patriotic according to Ernest Boon and Charles G. Ammon, fraternal delegates of the British trades union conference, who arrived here yesterday to attend the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor to be held in San Francisco, beginning November 8.

Rails Rarely Reach London.

London, Oct. 21 (10:20 p. m.)—Sir Arthur A. Simon, the home secretary, replying to a question in the house of commons this evening as to whether it would not be possible to warn Londoners of Zeppelin raids, asserted that nine times out of ten the German airships were driven off before they reached the coast.

BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY OF BIG RED APPLES BY SOUTH SPRINGS ORCHARD

J. F. Cleveland, owner manager for the South Springs orchard, Roswell, has one of the prettiest window displays of apples at his South Springs store—a display that would attract a tourist to apple boats and a treat to the eyes. His big appropriately arranged and properly packed such well-known varieties as Jonathan, Mizpah, Pippin, Arkansas Black, McIntosh Red, Winesap and Mammoth Black Twig, and all these brands of apples are grown on the South Springs orchard in the Rio Pecos valley near Roswell. Just above the display is a large picture—a panoramic view of the orchards, and this in connection with the large, fine apples, makes a beautiful exhibition proving beyond any question that the Pecos valley of eastern New Mexico, like other sections of the state, is the home of the big red apple. The children's result is well-rounded. Their tender little "tinsies" are injured by them.

If you eat a child's stomach, liver and bowels are damaged, give only "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive and gentle. Millions of mothers keep this because "Doll's laxative" hardly; they know children have to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and save the stomach, and that a teaspoon given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your drugstore for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

CHILDREN HATE
PILLS, CALOMEL
AND CASTOR OIL

If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—easier all, easiest, easiest. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's result is well-rounded. Their tender little "tinsies" are injured by them.
